

REPRODUCTIVE
JUSTICE
dreams

my reproductive
justice dreams
are intersectional
they center choice
and they center
dreams

my reproductive
justice
dreams are
based in radical love.

justice dreams
are anti-racist,
anti-colonialist,
anti-capitalist.
they center Indigenous
teachings and Black
radical love.

justice dreams
are without
condemnation or
judgment, without
vitrification or blame.
they center
support, care,
and choice.

justice dreams
are trauma-informed
they center
survivors,
they center healing
and they center
transformative
justice.

justice dreams are
accessible.
every city, every town,
every square kilometre,
with choice, transparency,
support, care, therapy
or not.
with no financial
obligations or motivations.

justice dreams
bring an end to
inter-generational
trauma. they make
possible the ability
of parents to raise their children the
way they want:
without
trauma.
